

passion for sports grounds

Dear SMG customers,

some world leaders recently emphasized the importance of ongoing international cooperation.

For us at SMG, this has been a matter of course for decades from which numerous partner and friendships have emerged around the globe. For this, we like to thank you very much.

We also recognize that the future challenges can only be addressed and resolved together on the same bases.

We already have undertaken significant steps to address the current topics regarding climate / environment and other related issues to contribute to possible solutions.

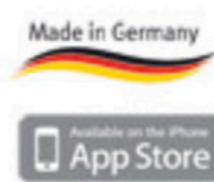

It would most certainly be mutually beneficial if we could discuss those developments with you during the upcoming year whenever the opportunity presents itself.

We wish you, your family and loved ones a wonderful Christmas and a happy, succesful and stress free New year.

Your SMG team
