Ferrus Takes Over Sales and After-Sales Service for SMG Cleaning Machines in Latvia

We are pleased to announce the new partnership between the Latvian company Ferrus and the German SMG Sportplatzmaschinenbau GmbH. From now on, Ferrus will be responsible for the sales and after-sales service of SMG's high-quality cleaning machines in Latvia.

About Ferrus

Ferrus is an established company based in Riga, Latvia, that has been successfully operating in the sale and maintenance of tractors, garden equipment, as well as specialized and industrial machinery since 1999. With a team of over 60 professionals, Ferrus serves more than 100 locations in and around Riga. The company values professionalism, loyalty, and continuous development to always provide its customers with the best solutions.

Benefits of the Partnership

Through the cooperation with SMG, Ferrus expands its product portfolio with top-tier cleaning machines that meet the high demands of modern sports field maintenance. Latvian customers will benefit from local sales and qualified after-sales service, backed by SMG's expertise and quality.
